

THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

"To dedicate or consecrate" a place to God is a ritual that is found in every religion. To "reserve" a place to God is an act of recognizing His glory and honor.

When Emperor Constantine granted full liberty to Christians in 313, they did not spare in order to construct places for the Lord – numerous are the churches constructed at that time. Constantine himself also constructed churches, one of which was a magnificent basilica on the Caelian Hill in Rome, over the ancient Lateran Palace, which Pope Sylvester I dedicated to Christ the Savior.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - Encourage Deeper Understanding of the Scripture — Father John Muir

November 9, 2025

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

John 2:13-22

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

Ornaments are available with wish list items.

The majority of our collection will be gifts for youth distributed by The Franciscan Daughters of Mary/Rose Garden Mission. These gifts do not need to be wrapped. We will also collect for the small number of residents at Regency Manor in Independence. Those gifts should be wrapped for distribution on Christmas Eve. We will also have families as they come to St. Patrick for assistance. Those items will be handled separately from those hanging on the tree. If you would like to help by adopting a family or a member of a family please reach out to Allyson at fullerallyson@yahoo.com or 859-801-8648. If you would like to help with these efforts in another way, please also feel free to reach out. We are looking forward to another year of generosity and support. Thank you in advance."

CHRISTMAS CHOIR - 2025 - NOW FORMING PRACTICES EVERY THURSDAY FROM 7PM-9PM IN THE CHURCH

Now is the time to assemble our "Joyful Noise" Christmas singers and musicians. We invite everyone over the age of 14 to join us. No formal experience is necessary. And no tryouts are required. We are not trained professionals and don't expect you to be. We sing and play the 4:30 pm mass on Christmas Eve, including the Independence annual Christmas walk on Saturday 12/6/25. Also, some nursing & retirement homes. All our practices are on Thursday evenings from 7 PM to 9 PM in the church.

If you can make most of the practices then, please consider joining us. For more information, contact me by phone or e-mail. Remember: tis the season for giving, so give your talent this year, and join us in making a "joyful noise unto the Lord" this Christmas season!
