

Gaudete Sunday

The Third Sunday of Advent, called Gaudete Sunday, is a midpoint celebration of joy amidst the penitential season, marked by lighting a pink/rose candle on the Advent wreath to signify the nearness of Christmas and the coming of Jesus. The theme shifts from expectation to rejoicing because the Lord is coming, with scripture emphasizing God's joy, forgiveness, and the hope found in faith.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

by Sr Margaret Hickey ND

Zephaniah—3:14-18; Philippians—4:4-7; Luke—3:10-18

“Let us REJOICE! Again, I say rejoice!”

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist is out preaching and is bombarded with the same question from the gathered crowds, the tax collectors, the soldiers, and probably many others: “What should we do?” His answers to the questions have one theme—be just, be fair, be kind, serve the needs of others and wait in hope. Some thought John was the Christ who was to come. He answers very honestly, “I am not! I have my mission which is to prepare the way for the Christ and I am doing my best as I preach to you and baptize you with water. Another will come to baptize you with the Holy Spirit and give you much more.” The Gospel ends: “Exhorting them in many other ways, he preached good news to the people.” He remained faithful to his mission to his death.

The Good News that John and many prophets before him taught is that Christ would come and did come and is still with us, both seen and unseen, and will never go away. Thus, we rejoice, thus we are glad!

The first reading from Zephaniah says: Fear not, do not be discouraged! God rejoices over you with gladness and renews you with great love and will rejoice over you! In his letter to the Philippians, Paul also calls his followers to rejoice, rejoice! He then encourages them and all of us to let go of those “things” that take away our ability to rejoice: lack of kindness to others, anxiety, failure to trust in God and so much more. Paul concludes: “Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.” Then you will rejoice!

The time of Christmas preparation is getting shorter and many events, distractions, anxieties, and concern for various issues can take away our focus on the meaning of this Advent leading to the great Feast of Christmas. Take deep breaths, sit in the quiet if even for a few minutes, and remember that our God is with us, always with us, no matter what happens in and around us. Believe and Rejoice!” Again, I say Rejoice! Then ask yourself, “How will I rejoice today?”

GENERAL ADVENT PRAYERS

For Hope: “Dear Heavenly Father, as we enter into this Advent season, our hearts are filled with hope and anticipation. We long for the coming of your Son, Jesus Christ, who brings light into our world...”

For Peace: “Dear Heavenly Father, we look to you, Prince of Peace, when we become overwhelmed during this season please help calm our anxious thoughts. Let us embrace our loving family and friends, and help us keep focus on the true reason for the season...”

For Reflection: “Lord, come to the manger of my heart. Fill me with Your presence from the very start. As I prepare for the holidays and gifts to be given, Remind me of the gift You gave when You sent Your Son from Heaven.”

Advent Wreath Prayer: “O God, by whose word all things are sanctified, pour forth thy blessing upon this wreath, and grant that we who use it may prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ...” Catholic Culture

St. Andrew Christmas Novena: This prayer is said 15 times daily from November 30th until Christmas. “Hail, and blessed be the hour and moment at which the Son of God was born of a most pure Virgin in a stable at midnight in Bethlehem in the piercing cold. At that hour vouchsafe, I beseech Thee, to hear my prayers and grant my desires. (Mention your intentions) Through Jesus Christ and His most Blessed Mother. Amen.”

Dear Jeff,

"If you cannot feed 100 people, then feed just one." - Mother Teresa

Whether we are helping one person with emergency food or 1,500 families through our monthly grocery staples pantry programs, we would not be able to fulfill our mission of providing the basic necessities of life to these families without your support.

SHARE LOVE THIS CHRISTMAS WITH ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NORTHERN KY

As we prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ, St. Vincent de Paul Northern Kentucky invites our community to share His love by bringing warmth, joy, and hope to our neighbors in need.

SVdP 25th Annual Winter Coat Drive

Many in Northern Kentucky will face the cold without proper winter clothing. New or gently used coats (adult sizes XL-XXXL especially) and winter accessories may be shared through January 31 at any SVdP NKY thrift store or participating donation site.

Vincent's Angels

Vincent's Angels allows parents and caregivers to personally choose Christmas gifts for their children. Toys are still needed, and parishes, schools, workplaces, and families are encouraged to collect presents so every child can experience the joy of Christmas morning. Donations can be delivered at any SVdP NKY thrift store.

Adopt-a-Family

To enter more personally into the spirit of giving, consider sponsoring a local family through our Adopt-a-Family program. Sponsors receive a wish list, purchase gifts, and drop off wrapped presents at our Erlanger facility to help a family feel seen and loved this Christmas.

Volunteers are also needed to help with coat sorting, toy distribution, and Christmas preparations. A few hours of your time can be a gift of Christ's light to someone in need. To register for these programs or learn more about volunteering, visit www.svdpnky.org/holiday-giving.
