PADRE'S PATCH UPDATE

Weeding: Boring but it is a necessary evil for a healthy garden.

Working the Soil: There is still room for more plants: Working the Perlite, coffee ground mix into the soil to prepare for new plants.

Watering: Using good judgement as well as looking at the rain forecast and % of rain headed our way. This coming week looks wet, but some days are scant rain.

Bonnie Keene and her daughter are donating pollination plants and plan to plant them early next week. Last year's pollinators have not yet sprouted up.

Let me know if you want a day to check in on the garden. It doesn't have to be weekly. *

Wednesdays are covered by Bill & Nancy Niehaus. Shelleyab202@gmail.com

SCRUBBING & WAXING FLOORS

Our parish is looking for someone to scrub and wax the school and hall floors over the summer months for a stipend. Interested party please contact Pam Nunnelly: nunnelleyp@stpat.school.

!!!! SCAM ALERT at St. Pat's !!!!

There is a scam happening at St. Pat's, someone is appearing as Father Jeff on email and asking for Visa cards to be purchased for him to use as gifts.

The email comes across as Father Jeff just asking for your time to buy these cards and he will pay you back.

The email also asks for the cards to be sent back via email with the front and back of cards pictured. Do Not Fall Prey To This!

PADRE JEFF WILL NEVER ASK FOR DONATIONS OR MONEY FROM US.
